THE PRIME MINISTER

2 May 2016

1)ton Br.

I wanted to write to congratulate you on more than 50 years as Chairman of the 45 Aid Society and to thank you and all your members for everything that you have given to our country over the last 71 years.

You all arrived here on RAF bombers as children who had witnessed unspeakable horrors. In your new homes you began the process of recovery and integration. At your dinner tonight, I know there will be moments of sad reflection as you remember all that was so brutally taken away from you. But I also want you and your families to know how proud we are of you all and how inspired we are by your service to this country.

For decades you have been at the forefront of Holocaust education, accompanying groups to Auschwitz, speaking in schools, bravely sharing your testimony and teaching future generations about the importance of fighting hatred in all its forms. Through the Society, you have also raised hundreds of thousands of pounds for good causes both here and abroad. This charitable legacy speaks to your commitment to spreading tolerance and helping others.

As Prime Minister, I see it as a personal responsibility to ensure that your message lives on for generation after generation. This is why on Holocaust Memorial Day this year I announced that a new, striking National Memorial to the Holocaust would be built in the iconic Victoria Tower Gardens, next to the Houses of Parliament in Westminster. It will stand as a permanent statement of our values as a nation and form part of our national consciousness for generations to come.

Your individual and collective triumph over adversity is an inspiration to us all. Together we will secure your legacy for posterity.

Litt all good hisher,

Mr Ben Helfgott MBE

CHAIRMAN'S MESSAGE

It is with immense pride that this year, as well as being second generation, I am also the newly elected chairman of the 45 Aid society. I have stepped into the largest shoes of our chairman, now President, Ben Helfgott . His tireless work and energy has seen the society grow and flourish for over 50 years. Across all the generations each and every one of us share a unique bond; we are connected by a silent promise made between the boys over 70 years ago. Their motto is triumph over adversity, and through sheer determination they have emerged as a unique family. We as their children, grandchildren and now great grandchildren have taken over the reigns to ensure that the past will never be forgotten and to pledge that the memory of the Shoah be used as a powerful force for good.

We have dedicated this year's reunion to Ben as an acknowledgement of how his leadership has been the heart of the 45 Aid Society

I wish to thank everyone who contributed so generously to the brochure with advertising and donations and also my thanks and gratitude to the committee, survivors and second and third generation without whose tireless help and dedication, our reunions would not happen.

Have a wonderful evening

Angela Cohen Chairman 45 Aid Society
