CHAIRMAN'S MESSAGE

During the past four years, we have been constantly reminded of the destruction of European Jewry. Tonight as we celebrate the 69th anniversary of our liberation, we are particularly conscious of the fate of Hungarian Jewry. From the end of April to the 8th July 1944, four Hundred and thirty thousand Jews were deported from Hungary to Birkenau where the vast majority were gassed. The destruction of the Hungarian Jews took place during the last stages of war. By that time the majority of Jews in Nazi occupied Europe had already been annihilated and most of the extermination camps, Treblinka, Belzec, Sobibor, Majdenek and Chelmno had been dismantled.

"Could they have been saved?" is a question which is repeatedly asked.

Their fate was sealed by the excessive optimism associated with the policy of those who played for time, the fierce and blind hatred of the Hungarian collaborators, the indifference of the world and the relentless, uncompromising determination of the SS to liquidate the Jews at all cost,

I wish to express my thanks to our many supporters and well wishers as well as those who have contributed so generously to the brochure and raffle tickets. It is with great pleasure that tonight, I welcome you, members of the 2nd and 3rd generation as well as our friends and guests.

It gives me pleasure to conclude my message by thanking our committee, many of whom are 2nd and 3rd generation, for their invaluable support.

כל הכבוד for your achievements. It is through the '45's that the holocaust will NEVER be forgotten. לא תשכח !!!

The Boys are a wonderful group of survivors, although some of them have sadly passed away like Abie ע"ה. Abie loved your annual event, meeting his treasured friends, who were his family.
He had no one else. He lost his entire family. He was proud to be a
