

Third Generation Holocaust Survivors And Refugees

What has been your experience growing up against the background of this trauma?

What has it been like to carry this legacy? You may be holding intergenerational experiences that belong to your ancestors. How do you discover your own way of being in the world?

This experiential weekend workshop held over 2 days will use creative approaches including psychodrama to explore the inheritance of your family of origin enabling a more conscious journey on your unique path.

Saturday 3rd - Sunday 4th March 2018 10am - 5pm Contribution to cover costs appreciated
VENUE: CCPE, Beauchamp Lodge, 2 Warwick Crescent, London W2 6NE

For more information and to book a place please contact
Petra Morris petramorris48@gmail.com 07703 332236

Participants are advised to be in personal therapy to attend
This workshop is offered as part of my final year in CCPE's Diploma in Transpersonal Psychotherapy