'45 Aid Society - Reunion Message

I wanted to write to express my very best wishes to you all, as you mark the '45 Aid Society's 76th Anniversary.

I am sorry that current circumstances mean you cannot meet in person. However, I am sure this year's virtual reunion will be an opportunity to reflect with your fellow Society members, as well as bring a sense of togetherness – something that is much-needed after what has been an unprecedented and challenging year.

As many of you know, I have long admired the work of the '45 Aid Society. For decades, you have been a driving force when it comes to Holocaust education, fighting against all forms of prejudice and hatred, and, instead, advocating for tolerance and peace. Your charitable efforts, both here and abroad, speak to your unwavering commitment to helping others, and your own personal and collective stories still resonate with, and inspire, so many.

The bravery that you have shown by going into schools, colleges and communities and talking about your own experiences over the years is truly inspiring. As is your dedication to honour the memory of those loved ones whose lives were so tragically taken. That is why I set up the Holocaust Commission as Prime Minister in 2014: to ensure the insights and reflections of survivors were listened to, and to help make sure the horrors of the past are never forgotten – and above all – never repeated.

So thank you for the wonderful contributions you have made, and all that you continue to do.

I wish you all a happy, successful reunion. This message comes with my sincerest and very best regards.

CHAIRMAN'S MESSAGE

The '45 Aid family is growing and getting stronger! This year's virtual reunion is a truly global event. It is an absolute joy to be able to join with our families in USA, Israel, Canada and all around the UK.

The pandemic has made us refocus, however, we continue the Boys work and proudly maintain their legacy.

I would like to thank all our donors and sponsors for their amazing generousity and support.

I would also like to thank the '45 Aid committee for their continual and tireless work and dedication.

Two diary dates,

77th Reunion on Monday 2 May 2022

and the

Prague Reunion in Windermere starting on Friday night with a family Shabbat dinner on 6th May.

Looking forward to being together,

My very best wishes
